FATHER GEIBEL'S DREAM — OUR VISION

Father Geibel Memorial High School

FOREWORD

In the opening words of his Inaugural Address, President John F. Kennedy said: "We observe today . . . a celebration of freedom, symbolizing an end as well as a beginning, signifying renewal as well as change." Very appropriately, we apply these words to another memorable day, January 6, 1964, when the exodus from the Immaculate Conception High School took place.

As we knelt at the Holy Mass which marked this commemorative end, as well as beginning, we Seniors experienced some very mixed emotions. A creeping nostalgia seemed to come over us; but, not for long, for as the Holy Mass neared completion, our eagerness to enter the new school increased. Despite the downpour of rain which no one seemed to mind, we reached Geibel High in a very short time. Here in a brief ceremony of cutting the green and white ribbons which had been stretched across the entrance doors, the school was officially opened. Immediately following this function, Reverend Francis Ott, Superintendent of Schools, blessed a crucifix which he placed on a wall at the main entrance. Then, in a special prayer, Father proceeded to beg God's blessing on the school and all who would be part of it.

The enthusiasm and exuberant joy of the students, faculty, and friends could scarcely be contained.

This was Father Geibel's dream come true.

REVEREND HENRY GEIBEL

DEDICATION

The 1964 GALAXY, the first in the history of Father Geibel Memorial High School, is gratefully dedicated to Reverend Henry Geibel, who in a basic sense, was responsible for its existence. Twelve years ago, on the occasion of his golden jubilee of his ordination to the Holy Priesthood, it was said of him, "As an educator, Father well knew that one of the most effective means of securing perpetuity in religious training is the Catholic High School." In 1930, as he presented diplomas to twelve high school graduates from Immaculate Conception High School, Father Geibel saw the fulfillment of his dream.

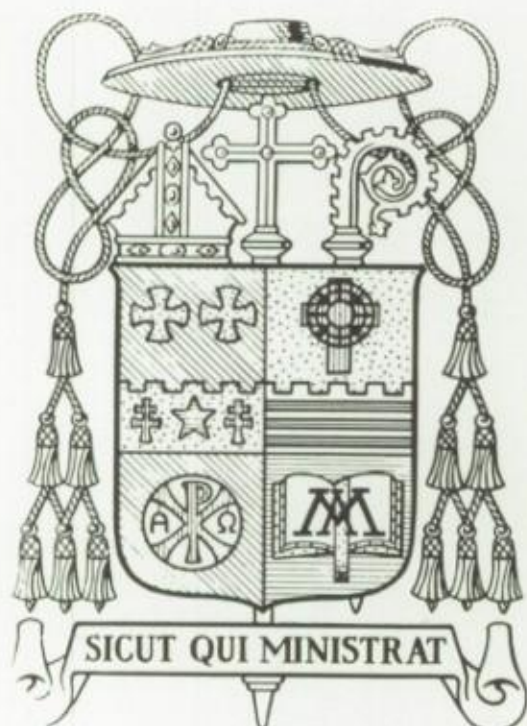

But progress is never at a standstill; and change is God's Providence at work; and so, for many years since that first high school graduation, Father Geibel set his sights on a new vision—a high school building, separate from the elementary grades; one that would accommodate a far greater number of students.

Father purchased a large tract of land in the Hillcrest area of Connells-ville. This became the site of the new high school; however, Father did not live to the day when the transition was made from the Immaculate Conception Parish High School to the Diocesan Father Geibel Memorial High School. The dream of this zealous Priest of God did not dissolve into thin air because other educators continued his work and made it a reality.

Truly, the words of the golden-mouthed St. John Chrysostom must have been their inspiration: "What greater work is there than training the mind and forming the habits of the young?"

May the torch of our lives lighted by this zeal burn in tribute to
FATHER HENRY GEIBEL.

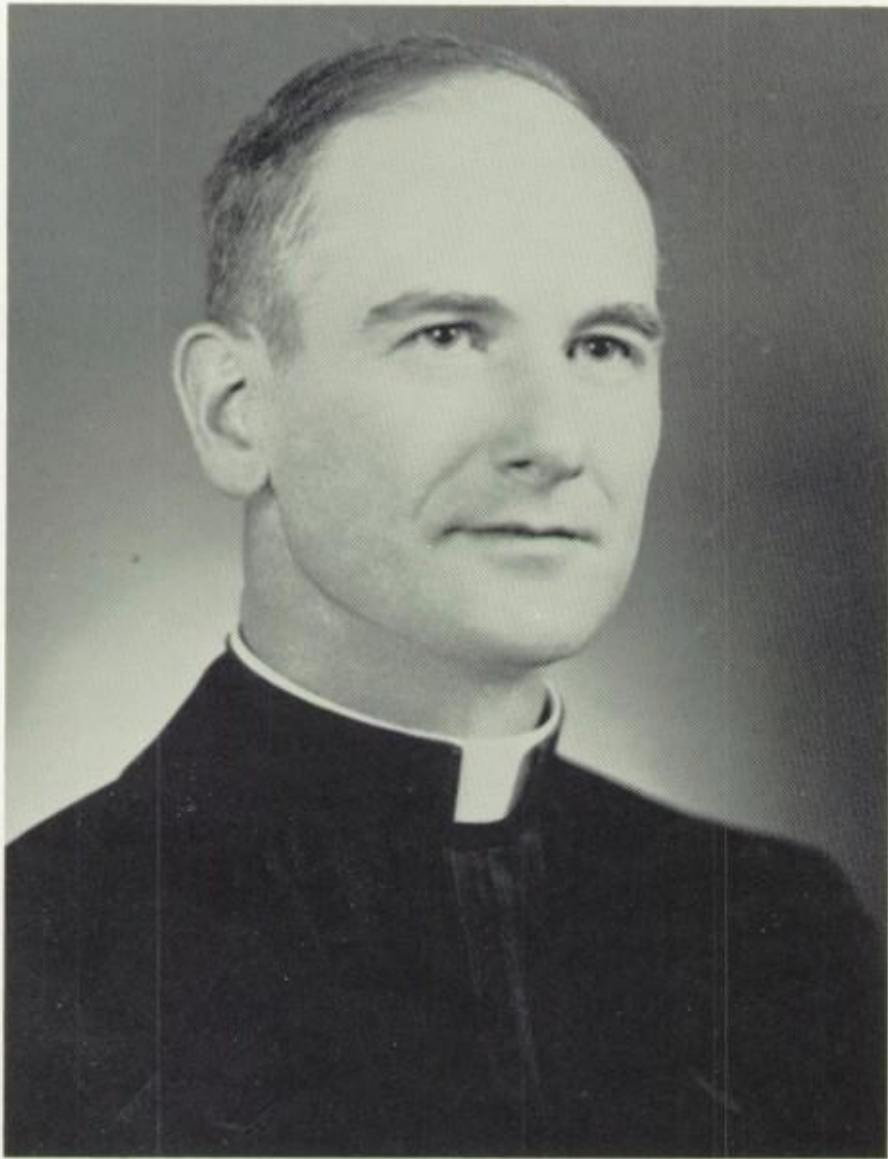

THE MOST REVEREND WILLIAM G. CONNARE

A captain of a ship at sea, a pilot of a plane in flight, a traveler on a journey must have some type of guide to lead him to his destination. No less, is this true of students seeking an education. For us, this guiding light is our beloved Bishop, His Excellency, Most Reverend William G. Connare.

In order to accommodate the increasing number of high school students in the diocese, and because our spiritual leader is concerned, not only about our acceptance into college, but more so about our entrance into Heaven, Bishop Connare sanctioned whole-heartedly, the establishment of diocesan high schools. Father Geibel Memorial High School is the third of this kind, serving sixteen parishes in the Connellsville area.

Thanks to our beloved Bishop, another milestone in the field of education has been reached, and the lights of learning burn with greater intensity because of his zeal and interest.

As Superintendent of schools, FATHER FRANCIS OTT has been following very closely the transition from the Immaculate Conception Parish High School to the Diocesan Father Geibel Memorial High School. On the occasion of the formal opening of the new school Father pointed out the advantages and opportunities which will be afforded us in the new modern building. Father urged us to use these to our fullest capacities, so that as graduates of Geibel High we will prove to be assets to our Alma Mater, our families, and to the Catholic Church.

To treat of the changeover from Immaculate Conception High School to Geibel High, and not include FATHER AUGUSTINE MARZHAUSER would certainly make our GALAXY incomplete. The kindly personal interest which Father has always taken in the students; his encouraging smile, and friendly greeting will always be cherished by us. Robert Frost wrote: "Home is where they have to take you when you have no other place to go," and because the Geibel High building was not yet completed, "Home" to us was Immaculate Conception School, and "our father," good Father Marzhauser, took us in. Thanks, Father! A thousand thanks!

REVEREND WILLIAM SHERIDAN

Father Sheridan, our Principal, is the driving force behind the great strides made in the reorganization from a small parish high school to a rapidly expanding diocesan high school. With his administrative ability, his keen interest, and untiring efforts, Father aims to produce a school that will be an outstanding example of Catholic modern secondary education. With the firm understanding of a Priest, and the watchful guidance of a Principal, Father has won the respect of us all. As the first graduating class of Father Geibel Memorial High, we look to him with reverence and inspiration.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

The Catholic people of Central Fayette County can indeed rejoice with the opening of the new Father Geibel High School. The long-awaited dream has finally become a reality. Our beautiful new school can be pointed to with great pride by all those in this area who have sacrificed so much to build it.

Father Geibel Memorial High School continues the work in secondary education begun thirty years ago with the foundation of Immaculate Conception Parish High School. For a generation it has been contributing to the glory of the Church. Its great success has been the inspiration for the continuance and enlargement of its educational work. This high school hopes to carry on in this splendid tradition.

We hope and pray that the future generations will be able to look back upon the accomplishments of Father Geibel High School with pride and satisfaction.

With "May I have your attention, please."
Father Sheridan begins the daily announcements.

BASKETBALL

GO! GATORS! GO!

Although the first basketball team of Father Geibel Memorial High School finished with a rather disappointing record of seven wins and eleven losses, they certainly provided their share of exciting moments throughout the season. From the thrilling last-second victory on opening night until the heart-breaking last-second defeat on closing night, the GATORS provided their fans with numerous and memorable thrills and chills.

NEW GYM

For many years, Immaculate Conception High School's basketball teams and their supporters dreamed of the day when they would be able to practice and play their games in their own gymnasium. For awhile it seemed as if this dream would never come true; but, everything comes to the man who waits; and so, in February 1964, this dream materialized. Modern in design and structure, it is the best in our area. For many years to come, this long-awaited and most appreciated facility will serve the students of Father Geibel Memorial High School.
